APEC Climate Center (APCC) will hold the APCC Symposium on September 18 to 20, 2007 at BEXCO in Busan, Korea, jointly with APCC Science Advisory Committee (SAC) Meeting and Member Working Group (WG) Meeting. It is an annual, international event with prominent participants from the National Meteorological and Hydrological Services (NMHSs) of the APEC member economies and participating institutions.

The 2007 APCC Symposium will also feature the Exhibition of Meteorological Industries in APEC Region, as well as Discussion Session on the furtherance of instruments and systems for resolution of climate issues. The main objective is to initiate networking opportunities and to promote constructive liaison among meteorological/ hydrological industries on instruments, equipment and climate service across the Asia-Pacific region.

Exhibition will be held at the Convention Hall, 2nd Fl. lobby, BEXCO in Busan. The schedule is as follow:

Move-In 17 September (Mon) 15:00-18:00
Exhibit Hours 18-19 September (Tue-Wed) 09:00-18:00
Move-Out 20 September (Thu) 09:00-14:00

Discussion Session will be held in Room 203, Convention Hall, 2nd Fl., BEXCO, 19 September 2007.

Application must be completed and accompanied by bank transfer for 10% of the total fee prior to August 27, 2007. For more information and application, please visit the APCC Symposium website (www2.apcc21.net/symposium/2007).
